> ROBERT APPLE'S BAQUEST TO SAN FRANCISCO.

Robert Apple, one of the old time superintendents of Comstock mines, who died in Europe in July, 1878, bequeathed in his will the sum of $10,000 for the erection of a free drinking tountain for the city of San Francisco. The will provides that the fountain shall be erected near the Oakland ferry landing. Its foundation is to be composed of refuse quartz from the dumps of the Comstock mines, in all to the quantity of ten tons, a portion to be taken from each mine. The fountain will be from eighteen to twenty feet in hight, to be made of iron castings with fine bronze finish. In these casting, about eight feet from the bottom, the will provides that spaces shall be left two feet square for panels of California marble, on which shall be inscribed, in effect:
"Robert Apple, M. E., one of the first settlers of the Comstock in 1850. He helped to build the product of the lode. So is built the whole city of San Francisco." Mr. Apple's fortune, amountcisco." ing to $80,000 in United States bonds, now rests in the Austrian National Bank of Vienna. There has been some delay in obtaining it from the Austrian Government. Colonel C. L. Weller, the administrator of the estate, has appealed to the Secretary of State of the United States, however, and has been assured that there will be no difficulty in obtaining the funds and carrying out the provisions of the will.
